

I hereby apply for funding for 3 publications (3 co-created short books/monographs with the indigenous communities of Brazil and Norway).

Authors: G. Parola, M. P. Poto

Book I: (En) Legal Design and Visual Law applied to Environmental Law: The case of the River Tarumã and the Chiquitano People. Illustrations by representatives of the Chiquitano People (Portuguese) Legal Design e Visual Law no Direito Ambiental: Aplicação No Caso Da Poluição Do Rio Tarumã E Os Reflexos No Povo Chiquitano

Abstract: The book is a co-created result of the project ECOCARE (HKDIR Utforsk 2021-2024) and combines elements of environmental law, indigenous law with applied techniques of legal design and visual law. The editors, also principal investigators of the project, have worked in cooperation with law students, researchers, and representatives of the indigenous Chiquitano People from Mato Grosso, Brazil. The book comprises an analysis of: 1. Methodological steps; 2. Story co-created by law students and Chiquitano people; 3. Legal, cultural, and geographical notes on the River Tarumã and the legal battle of the Chiquitano people for the protection of environmental and human rights; 4. Exercises for students. The target audience is indigenous communities, law students, researchers in the fields of environmental law and indigenous law. The book has been illustrated by the Chiquitano people. The text is in double language: English and Portuguese.

Expected manuscript completion: giugno 2022

Expected publication: Dicembre 2022
