Explain why the syllabus should be changed:	The current syllabus is outdated; students are also constantly complaining about the syllabus not being up-to-date.

The total amount of pages in the course/subject before and after the change of syllabus.	Before change: 780 (NB: max limit is 825) After change: 830 (50 pages more than the amount of pages currently 'in force', but only 5 pages above the max limit of 825 pages)
Specified explanation if the suggestion differ from the current syllabus norms (cf. syllabus norms specified on the last page):	Vito De Lucia and Tore Henriksen, which are the teachers in this course, suggested the outlined changes. As currently none of them has the capacity to take a closer look at the page numbers (page limits), this year's syllabus (academic year 2022/2023) would be slightly above the max page limit (ie 5 pages above the max limit). It is hoped that the 5 extra pages will be cut down for academic year 2023-2024.
Is a gender perspective included in the suggested syllabus, and/or is it gender balance between the authors of the syllabus in the current subject/course?	Gender perspective well taken care of.
Any other remarks:
Overall assessment from avdelingsleder/program director:	Is the suggested change in the syllabus supported by the avdelingsleder/program director? Yes [X] No [] If the proponent is avdelingsleder/program director: Do the teachers support the change in the syllabus? Yes [X] No []

	Do the syllabus change also necessitates a change in the subject/course description and/or the learning outcome descriptions: Yes [<input type="checkbox"/>] No [<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>]
