Emneevaluering av emnet HIF-8040 Constructicography: Advanced Topics in Construction Grammar

Innstilling til vedtak:

Ph.d.-utvalget tar evalueringene av ph.d.-emnet HIF-8040 Constructicography: Advanced Topics in Construction Grammar, til etterretning. Fagmiljøet bes vurdere tilbakemeldingene fra kandidatene angående mulighetene for å gjøre emnet litt mer praktisk innrettet, samt tilbakemeldingen fra enkelte faglærere om å legge opp til et fysisk møte mellom alle involverte.

Bakgrunn:

Våren 2023 ble emnet HIF-8040 Constructicography: Advanced Topics in Construction Grammar arrangert for første gang ved Institutt for språk og kultur (ISK). Det var 9 kandidater som meldte seg opp til undervisningen, og alle 9 fullførte eksamen. Av de 9 kandidatene var det 7 som responderte på studentevalueringen i Nettskjema.

Studentevaluering:

Kandidatene var fornøyde med emnet. De rapporterte blant annet om at de syntes at kurset var velorganisert, de lærte mye i emnet, de ville anbefale det for andre kandidater, at faglærerne presenterte innholdet på en klar måte og at de var hjelpsomme. Av kommentarer om hva som var emnets sterkeste punkter var noen av kommentarene selve innholdet og faglærerne, interessante temaer og at faglærerne hadde oppdaterte metoder og temaer.

Av forbedringspunkter var det en som pekte på at det kanskje kunne være litt mer praktisk, slik at man kunne få leke med konstruksjoner o.l. En annen pekte på at det kunne være nyttig dersom en liste med potensielle diskusjonspunkter før hver forelesning var tilgjengelig, for å kunne høyne diskusjonsnivået noe.

Faglærerevaluering

Det var flere faglærere involvert i dette emnet, og i sin tilbakemelding peker de på at de har vært fornøyde med hvordan dette kurset ble organisert, og de synes at det fungerte fint å ha det digitalt. Når de ble bedt om å kommentere hva som var de sterkeste sidene av kurset ble det blant annet pekt på mangfoldet av kompetanse hos de forskjellige faglærerne og at kurset samler forskere fra ulike land og språk.

Som forbedringspotensialer i kurset ble det kommentert at det kunne være mer praktisk, at kandidatene kunne presentert prosjektideene sine, og få tilbakemelding tidlig i kurset, og at det burde være et fysisk møte mellom kandidatene og faglærerne, altså at det ikke bare ble tilbudt digitalt.

Closing questions

1. In your opinion, what are the course's strongest points?

The course's strongest point is the fact that it gathers a variety of instructors who have already cooperated and are still cooperating on large-scale international projects. As such, the course is modern and presents students with the most recent advances in construction grammar in a very compact fashion, where students can not only appreciate the lectures, but also get exposed to a wealth of interconnected citeable papers.

2. In what way can the course be improved?

It may be useful to have a list of potential discussion points before each lecture's discussion part as a way of boosting the level of discussion. The required readings are for the most part very clear and concise, but are at times too long, which is why having a list of possible talking points would help students focus on certain more contentious or thought-provoking bits.

Closing questions

1. In your opinion, what are the course's strongest points?

The course has provided various alternative views to crucial issues of constructicon-building and addressed both practical and theoretical challenges of this field.

2. In what way can the course be improved?

In person instruction could be a bonus in the future. Introduction of the students to each other early in the course can be a way to improve the course.

Closing questions

1. In your opinion, what are the course's strongest points?

great variety, excellent introduction in constructicography; great way to get the research community together and to attract young scholars for the topics addressed

2. In what way can the course be improved?

the online format worked well, however, an on-site meeting in person would very much enrich the discussions and the scientific exchange both between the instructors and between the instructors and the young scholars
